HOW TO LIST BHRA AS A BENEFICIARY

Naming the Bighorn River Alliance as a beneficiary is a simple and meaningful way to create a lasting legacy for the Bighorn River. Many retirement accounts, life insurance policies, and investment accounts allow you to designate beneficiaries directly through your financial institution — often without the need to update your will or trust.

To include BHRA, request a Beneficiary Designation Form from your account provider and list BHRA as a full, partial, or contingent beneficiary. You may update your designation at any time.
